POTLUCK DINNER TOMORROW NIGHT

Tomorrow night, November 21, at the Wesley Foundation there will be a potluck dinner. You should plan to arrive a bit before 7:00 PM, and be sure to bring a goodie. For those who absolutely cannot cook, donations will be accepted; but remember that we can't eat cash. We already have promises of a good amount of food, but we will need more. If you plan to show up, please stop by the front desk at the dance tonight and tell us what you plan to bring. We still need quiche and Perrier.

Calendar

There are no scheduled events for the week of Thanksgiving.

December 4 - Regular Thursday night meeting and Social.

Saturday, December 6 -- LAST DANCE OF THE SEMESTER

This will probably be the last issue of The Gay Student published before the holidays, so have a good time!

All of you creative people are encouraged to submit articles, poems, etc. to us for our literary magazine. Entries should be short and need not necessarily deal with gay themes.

Anyone wishing to work on our gay bibliography should come forward and make herself or himself known. We would like to compile a complete list of sources available in the Charlottesville community. We need lots of help.

On Wednesday, November 19, six GSU people met with six people from the Wesley Foundation to discuss the interrelationship between the gay and straight communities. The Wesley people were very receptive, and we all learned a lot about one another. Our thanks to Jim McDonald for helping to arrange the meeting.

PLANS FOR THE SPRING SEMESTER ...

- We would like to have a program on Gays and Job Opportunities.
- We would like to have a Parents of Gays group speak to us.
- We are still negotiating with CLF for a possible appearance by The Ladies' Auxilliary of the Sacred Tabernacle Washed in the Blood of the Lamb Things of the Spirit and of the Flesh Dyed in the Wool Holier than Thou, etc., etc. HER SINGING CHORUS. They were a big hit last year and should prove to be equally smashing this spring, if they can come to Charlottesville.
